

Cindy Kushner

Director

School and Community Partnerships

Lorain County Community College

What We Learned -- LCCC CAEL 360

Principle Classifications

Principle		Principle
Outreach	●	Adaptivity	⬡
Life & Career Planning	⬡	Technology	▲
Financing	▲	Strategic Partnerships
Student Support Systems	●	Transitions
Assessment of Learning Outcomes	▲	The Teaching-Learning Process	▲

Strengths: ● Challenges: ⬡ Disconnects: ▲

Institutional Focus

Lorain County Community College

Impact 2025

1 Student Focused	2 Success Focused	3 Future Focused	4 Work Focused	5 Community Focused
Expand Participation	Increase Completion & Academic Success	Foster Future Success	Improve Economic Competitiveness	Enhance Quality of Life
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Prepare Working Age Adults for New Economy Prepare Next Generation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Offer Pathways to Emerging & In-Demand Jobs and Industries Ensure Equity for All Students – Break Down Barriers & Create Opportunities Prepare Students with Future Ready Skills Make Education and Training More Accessible and Flexible 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Expand Earn and Learn Models Enhance Career and Job Placement Services Expand Clear, Affordable Pathways to Bachelor's and Graduate Degrees 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Elevate Skills of Workforce as Economy Shifts Stimulate Innovation and Entrepreneurship 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Partner with Community Organizations to Address Common Community Challenges and Opportunities Leverage LCCC as a Community Resource

LCCC Immediate Actions

- Communication Audit (Frontier Set)
- Campus Signage
- Web Accessibility to Information
- Marketing
- Advocacy & Resource Center
- New position: Student Services Navigator
- Online Orientation Modules for Adult Learners

LCCC Actions

More Course/Program Delivery Options for Adults

- Online Degree Programs
- Accelerated 15 month Degrees - using 8 week courses
- Earn and Learn Expansion
- Apprenticeship Models

Earn Your Degree Online

Associate of Arts

Associate of Applied Business

- Accounting
- Management
- Marketing
- Real Estate

One-Year General Certificates

- Humanities Studies
- Philosophical Studies
- Religious Studies
- Spanish

One-Year Technical Certificates

- Business Management
- Entrepreneurship
- Hospitality Operations

Short-Term Technical Certificates

- Accounting: Bookkeeper I, Bookkeeper II, Payroll Clerk
- Customer Service
- General Business Administration
- Real Estate
- Computer Info Technology: Information Security for Business, Web Design Fundamentals, Web Programming Fundamentals

Choose Your Degree

lorainccc.edu/enroll

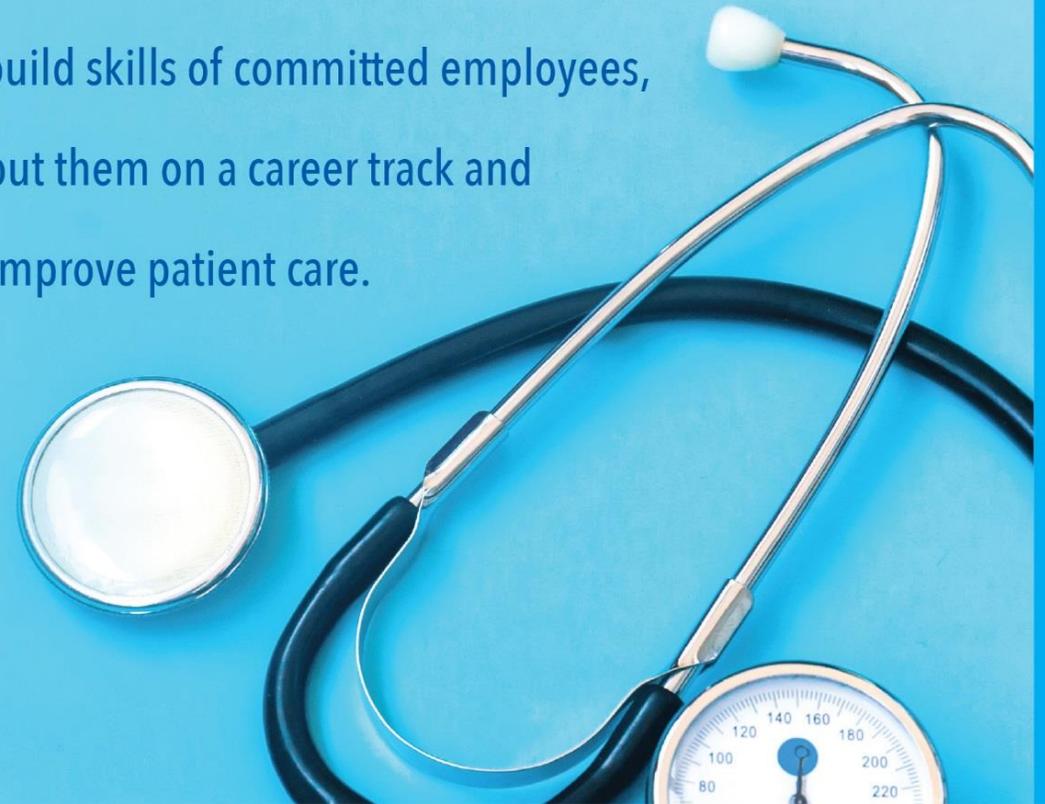

LCCC Action

The Power of Apprenticeship: Healthcare

LORAIN COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Learn how healthcare apprenticeships with LCCC can build skills of committed employees, put them on a career track and improve patient care.

LCCC's First Healthcare Apprenticeship

STNA to LPN and RN Pathways

The Power of Apprenticeship:
Healthcare

STNA credential is required to apply for the Nursing programs at LCCC.

EARN and LEARN

Combines a hands on college degree with a paid internship.

- Attend classes 2 days a week and work 3 days a week
- Paid on-the-job training and work experience
- Potential for zero student loan debt
- Opportunity for full-time employment with a sponsoring company

Microelectronic Manufacturing or MEMS

Expanding in other fields