What Labor Market data would be useful to you in your role?

Industries/Firm hires by level of credential earned (if possible)

Skills require din the region

Supply vs Demand by program/occupation

Updated PSEO LEHD data

Fastest growing skills

In demand jobs and projected salary information.

Fastest-growing jobs at each education level

Job placement information by program / CIP code

Transparency of labor market data in easily accessible format on website so that students have direct access to this information and broken down by certificate and degree.

the types of positions that are hard to fill and the training/skills associated with them

Employment projections for occupations / programs

Drivers of change for occupations (e.g. BLS Occupational Employment Projections table 1.12)

There is an EMSI / Lightcast report that shows the fastest growing jobs in a region - it can be sorted by total current jobs, projected jobs, or projected percentage growth in a given timeframe

stagnate or declining occupations

Locations our grads workplaces

How does your college use Labor Market data?

Also post-grad job placement of graduates by program (with many caveats)

We use some in program review (very high level ODJFS summary with many caveats) and some EMSI type info

New program development

Academic Program Review

Also academic program review

Post-graduate outcomes